

Carlow County Library

Order of the Dragon: Question of Time

by Pauric Brennan

Local Author

The first book in the Order of Dragon trilogy by Pauric Brennan

Time rules all. Throughout history people have tried to control it, using machines and magic. None have succeeded until now. Now, one man has linked the past with the present, using time and magic as his ally. With this link he feeds his appetite for world domination and destruction. Erasmus Reich must be stopped and only one 400-year-old 12-year-old boy can do it. Only with the help of G.I.U, a wacky band of gnomes, and a white witch can he hope to bring peace back to his world. Join the struggle; unite with Bill, Maisie, Tilterman and Sven in “Order of the Dragon: Question of Time”.

Pauric Brennan was born in County Laois. He now resides in the sleepy hills around Killeshin near Carlow with his long suffering partner Amanda and his collection of dragons, Rodney, Buster, La Marquesa, Toki and Uri. Here he continues to write about the exploits of Bill, Maisie, Tilterman and Sven.

The Order of the Dragon trilogy begins with ‘Question of Time’ and continues with ‘Pathways in Time’ and with the explosive ending and the final battle for ‘Crintia and Faranzuel in ‘March of Chaos’.

Book Launch
Carlow Central Library
George Bernard Shaw Room
Saturday 26th July at 3.00 pm
BOOK YOUR PLACE NOW...