ArtLinks supports the professional development of creative practitioners, aged 18 years and over, who are resident in the Local Authority administrative areas of Carlow, Kilkenny, Waterford and Wexford and who fulfil the appropriate criteria as outlined below.

During 2020 Artlink's Bursary Awards will be given to individuals within their chosen discipline. The Bursary Programme supports artists in the following categories:

- Emerging Artist Award- (Awards between €1,000- €3,000 approx.)
- Professional Development Award- (Award between €1000 - €3,000 approx.)
- Collaboration Award- One award of €10,000

ARTLINKS COLLABORATION AWARD 2020

- The Collaboration Award is open to application by Professional Artists and Emerging Artists who are members of ArtLinks.
- The aim of this new award is to encourage more collaboration between artists across the Artlinks counties and support artists seeking to expand their practice and networks regionally.
- The award must involve collaboration between artists from two or more Artlinks counties in the development of new work, to be showcased in two or more Artlinks counties.
- The development reason for this collaboration must be evident in the proposal and collaborations that are new or recent will be prioritized over ongoing collaborations.
- The total value of the award is €10,000.

To qualify for this award, an artist must meet the criteria outlined below.

1. All applicants must be currently living in the Local Authority administrative areas of Carlow, Kilkenny, Waterford or Wexford for a minimum period of 2 years and be a registered member of Artlink's or recently registered with their local authority as an Artlinks member.

2. It is requested that a lead practitioner submits the application on behalf of the other artist(s) and the Collaboration Award.
3. Collaboration can be made up of Professional and/ or Emerging Artists. A Professional Artist must be named as the lead artist and they must submit the application.
4. Priority will be given to new Applicants.
5. Each member of the collaboration must also submit personal current Curriculum Vitae in the supporting documentation.
6. There must be a minimum of two public outcomes (e.g. exhibition, concerts, reading, and performances) of new work arising out of this Collaboration Award that take place in two or more Artlink's counties.
7. These outcomes should take place within a 1- 2 year period of receiving the award
8. The relevant local authority arts offices and Art links must be notified of these events with Artlink's support and logos included in all PR and documentation.
9. Applications should be sent to the Lead Artists Local Authority Arts office and relevant contact person. Hard copies only accepted by Carlow Arts Offices.
10. Retrospective applications will not be considered.

APPLICATION ASSESSMENT/ CRITERIA

Applications will be assessed based on the following criteria:

- Quality of the Proposal and comprehensiveness of the application form.
- Evidence of the developmental nature of the collaboration and relevance to current artistic practices.
- Demonstration of capacity to successfully plan and execute the project and deliver public outcomes in a minimum of 2 Artlinks Local Authorities.
- Budget breakdown and management

Note: Application forms must be completed in full. Incomplete or late applications will not be considered.

CONDITIONS

All offers of ArtLinks Bursary Awards are conditional and subject to the receipt of evidence of fulfilment of the Bursary conditions.

NOTES FOR COMPLETING YOUR APPLICATION FORM

1. Read all questions thoroughly before you answer them
2. Remember that several people will be involved in the decision-making. Make your application clear, concise, unambiguous and easy to handle.

3. Be selective with supporting material submitted. It is better to submit less than to include work you do not consider to be your best. Remember that you are trying to persuade a selection panel why your proposal should be funded.
4. Do not assume the selection panel knows your work - treat the application as if it were your first.
5. Remember your application is assessed on the basis of all information supplied within a competitive context of many other applications.
6. Get someone, perhaps working in your discipline, to look over your application before you sent it in.
7. Provide good examples and reproductions of your works.
8. Have a clear and realistic idea of what you want and how much your proposal costs
9. Provide a project timeline if appropriate.
10. Plan your application well in advance.
11. Keep a copy of your application for reference purposes
12. Canvassing in any form will disqualify you from the process.
